During my decision for furthering my tertiary education at the graduate level, there were several options. However, I opted for European Graduate School of Management on the premise of reputation and European Curriculum which offers flexibility and affordability without compromising the quality of education, in addition to the in-depth knowledge of the professors and the modality of the lectures.

The experience gained is invaluable and not I have no regret making the decision to attend EGSM. My knowledge and critical thinking skill have increased exponentially in addition to several life lessons learned, of which there is one that stands out most" never procrastinate, grab the opportunity because every minute counts".

Ali Mohamed Kadhem

MBA in International Management

EGSM provides a flexible plan to get an MBA degree without interrupting my work commitments. They also have solid and well-known accreditations.

EGSM has high class professors delivering a wide range of subjects, from topics as general as leadership and management to as specific as Entrepreneurship and Entrepreneurial Management.

In addition, their students have excellent practical experiences, representing engineers, managers and even directors, which allow me to exchanger working experiences from different culture and businesses.

I am proud to say that I attended all courses and never skip a single hour, because I really enjoyed studying at EGSM. This is because I was always building on my knowledge, skills and abilities whenever I am on the class.

What is also more interesting is that every day I was learning at EGSM, I was motivated to improve my productivity and efficiency at work. It was really a wonderful experience!

Abin Georgy

I chose EGSM because I wanted to pursue my MBA from a good university which I believe would improve my knowledge, provide me with better opportunities and enhance my future career. By pursuing my MBA through EGSM, I was able to complete my MBA with one of the top Universities that had good worldwide ranking and whose degree was accredited and widely recognized.

My experience with EGSM is great because the quality of education and knowledge that I received is beyond the words that I can express. The lecturers who taught us were also amazing as they covered the course content in the best style. I learned a lot and the knowledge that I gained will certainly help me bring better opportunities in my career. Overall, my experience with EGSM was great.
